

New Directions 2018 Conference

Alcohol & Recovery

The 42nd Annual NDSAG Conference

Thursday 7th June—The University of Sheffield

“All day conference that offers a mixture of research, agency and personal presentations. A specific exploration of what recovery discourses have to say about experiences of alcohol use and service provision”.

09:00—09:40	Arrival and Registration
09:40—09:50	Welcome, House keeping Wulf Livingston, Chair
09:50—10:25	Recovery, what is it all about, definitions and headlines for alcohol Dr David Best
10:25—11:00	Who is 'recovery' for? Language, problems and identity issues? James Morris Claire Melia, Keele University
11:00—11:30	TBC Dr. Tim Leighton, University of Bath
11.30—12:00	Coffee Break
12:00—12:30	Individuality, interdependency, and inconsistency in long-term recoveries: lessons for early recovery? Julia Mills (Doctoral Student)
12:30—13:00	Spirituality: A floating signifier in recovery experiences Dr Wendy Dosset, University of Chester
13:00—14:10	Lunch—in the hall
14:10—14:40	Recovery, Involvement and Research Mr. Andy Irving, University of Sheffield Karin Sibly & Steven Collier-Ellen, SHARRP
14:40—15:10	Developing recovery organisations Josie Slater
15:10—15:30	Tea and Coffee
15:30—16:00	Peddalling power—the role of recovery groups, beyond the treatment setting Simon Morgan, Recoverist
16:00—16:45	Plenary